Following are some notes about upcoming town meeting proposals. You may want to alert reps to inform their accounts during normal coverage about these issues and have them encourage accounts to defend their interests.

Thanks
Bruce

St. Joseph, MN--Bob Fackler requests calls to retailers urging them to attend the 6/20 city council meeting where a proposal to ban the self-service displays of tobacco products and possible compromises to that position will be discussed.

Tuckerton, NJ--Same day calls were requested to merchants who will be encouraged to go to a meeting of the township council where self-service display bans have been proposed. This is another in a series of Ocean County towns who are now debating this topic. Typically, there communities have fewer than a dozen key retailers and only a handful with an sales contracts.
